Concentrated Goodness.

Enhance the natural appeal of your products with customised ingredient and particulate combinations. With URC® INCLUSIONS™ – the possibilities are endless!

✓ Ancient Grains

High in energy and nutrition, ancient grains such as quinoa, amaranth and even chia seeds are top international food trends for 2012.

✓ Crispy Crunch

Crisped rice and cereals add surprising taste and texture, providing natural appeal for young and old.

✓ Functional Ingredients

Encapsulated nutraceuticals such as prebiotics, probiotics and omega-3 oils, provide a range of health promoting benefits.

✓ Fruit & Vegetables

Sundried and freeze dried fruits and vegetables, including URC® Fruit Pieces can be added for flavour, colour and texture variety.

✓ Sweet Treats

Chocolate in the form of cocoa nibs, and sweet biscuits create new possibilities for a range of fruit combinations.
